Welcome to Eddington Park

Herne Bay is Kent's renaissance town.

Two miles of beach fronts a Victorian seafront - the very image of Herne Bay. However, there is so much more to this cosmopolitan town, close to both Whitstable and Canterbury.

William Court at Eddington Park is a collection of one and two bed apartments on an award-winning development which includes the Herne Bay Sports Hub, a £10m, 15-acre state of the art facility, home to Herne Bay Youth Football Club, Herne Bay Cricket Club, Herne Bay Tennis Club and Herne Bay Hockey Club.

Located for easy access to the A299, Eddington Park and Herne Bay allows easy access to East Kent and the wider road network. St Pancras is a mere 80 minutes away from Herne Bay's train station.

The Sea, Big Skies and Historic Landscapes

With two miles of coastline, a sand and shingle beach, colourful beach huts, seafront gardens, a pier and bandstand, Herne Bay is the epitome of the traditional British seaside resort. Traditional rides, a Helter Skelter, stalls, amusements, a retail village with food and drink huts now fills the pier.

Herne Bay has exciting areas of green space including the Memorial Park and along the seafront the sunken Waltrop Gardens and Reculver Country Park, with its clifftop paths and varied wildlife to be seen on the marshes and rare clifftop wildflower meadows.

Reculver Towers are a striking pair of 12th-century church towers set on the edge of a cliff. The only part of the church remaining, preserved as a landmark for sailors, they are visible for miles around. But there are even earlier ruins here; the church was built in the centre of an old Roman fort, dating from around 200AD.

The Oyster Bay Trail is a new walking and cycling route that takes in all of Herne Bay's coast. At 6.7 miles in length, it's a pleasant, mostly flat route. The first phase comprises around five miles of promenade, cycle paths and residential roads, with the remainder along Herne Bay's seafront.

Herne Bay has a heavily independent high street led by fine boutiques and eateries. Herne Bay's Seaside Museum has a fascinating collection and changing exhibitions.

Set in nearby Herne Common, Wildwood is a wild animal park with a difference. All the animals here are, or were, native to the British Isles, with more than 200 animals and birds at the 40-acre woodland site. There is everything from large European brown bears, bison, wolves, lynx and beavers.

Beach Creative is a community art gallery showcasing works from Kent artists and host to workshops ranging from painting, printing and life drawing to creative writing and clay sculpting. In addition, Herne Bay has the independent Kavanagh Cinema and the 72-seater Little Theatre.

HERNE BAY

SPORTS HUB

On Eddington Park itself, the newly opened £10m, 15-acre Herne Bay Sports Hub provides state-of-the-art facilities for the local community and local sports clubs.

With sailing, rowing and yachting facilities, the sea is an amazing asset for the town.

Herne Bay has a range of Ofsted 'Good' primary schools along with the High School and grammar schools close by in Faversham, Ramsgate and Canterbury.

Herne Bay has enviable commuting options with the A299 connecting to the M2 nearby in Faversham. HS1 provides trains to St Pancras with trains also connecting to London Victoria.
